GOOD FRIDAY CRAWFISH BOIL

Good Friday holds a special significance for the Gatti family, as they hosted their sixth annual crawfish boil on March 29 at The Stable, marking a tradition intertwined with charity.

This year, the Gatti family collaborated with Men and Women of Courage to extend support to students at Bossier Elementary, Cumberland Farms, and single-family households in need.

Cooyon's crawfish played a crucial role, contributing over 1,000 pounds of crawfish and 100 pounds of shrimp to the event. Over $7,500 was raised alongside hundreds of gift cards collected, all benefiting various charitable organizations and families facing hardships in the area.

MEET JOSEE

Josee is from Hemphill, Texas where she developed a passion for science amid close-knit community ties. Driven by her academic aspirations, Josee pursued a Bachelor's Degree in Biology/Chemistry at East Texas Baptist University. She then embarked on a journey to the University of North Texas, where she earned a Master's degree in Biomedical Sciences.

In 2021, Josee turned a new page in her life's story as she relocated to Bossier City, Louisiana. It was here that she joined hands in matrimony with her husband, Hal Gatti, marking the beginning of a new chapter.

Presently, Josee thrives in her role as a client onboarding specialist and ensures that each client is met with exceptional service and a smooth transition throughout the legal process.

Beyond her professional endeavors, Josee finds fulfillment in spending quality time with her family and her beloved dog, Brady. She also enjoys indulging in her creative pursuits such as baking and reading. We're delighted to have Josee apart of our team, where she excels in her field of expertise.

ABOUT GEAUX 4 KIDS

Geaux 4 Kids extends assistance and a wealth of resources to children across Louisiana who have been a victim of crime. Among its initiatives is the Geaux Bags project, which offers support in the form of pajamas, toiletries, and comforting items to ease the transition for children entering foster care. These bags play a crucial role in providing essential items for both the child and foster parent. Geaux Bags are tailored to different age groups, ensuring that every child receives the appropriate support.

Geaux 4 Kids presents "May The Force Be With You," their upcoming event scheduled for Friday, May 3, 2024. This gathering offers a chance for the community to unite over a luncheon featuring guest speaker Jimmy Wayne. The event will take place at the East Ridge Country Club in Shreveport, Louisiana. Sponsorship opportunities are included and donations are welcomed and appreciated at any time.

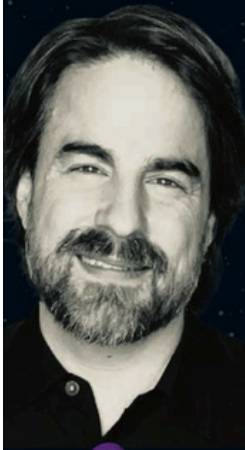

Recently, our team had the privilege of hearing K.C. Kilpatrick Baird, the Founder and Executive Director of Geaux 4 Kids, share her inspiring journey at the North Bossier Lunch Group at BPSTIL.

K.C. is the proud parent of two wonderful children who entered her life through the foster care system. Drawing from her own journey and her passion for ensuring every child has hope for a bright future, she works tirelessly to support children throughout the state. To read deeper into her story and discover the roots of Geaux 4 Kids, visit the website linked above.
