ABOUT RACHEL

Rachel is from Bossier City, Louisiana having graduated from Airline High School. Her educational journey included attending BPC and LSU-Shreveport.

She spent 15 years in Texas, where she pursued her MBA at UT-Tyler and later attended the South Texas College of Law in Houston.

Rachel initially worked at LSU Medical Center for 7 years before relocating to Texas. She obtained her Texas license in 2007 and later acquired her Louisiana license in 2018. Rachel focuses on divorce, custody, child support, and community property.

Kelley Wyatt's Story

Kelley Wyatt, mother of two and wife to Jeff, faced a life-threatening situation on Airline Drive in Bossier City on September 4, 2016. The defendant abruptly veered into the oncoming center lane, resulting in a head-on collision with Kelley. The defendant later acknowledged his state of excessive intoxication. Multiple neurosurgeons and over one hundred first responders played a crucial role in saving Kelley's life.

Despite the rescue, Kelley's life took a drastic shift when she became wheelchair-bound. Our firm utilized cautious jury focus groups, providing valuable support that strengthened our position in negotiations against the insurance defense team.

Today, Kelley remains resilient, continuing to embrace her full life. We express our sincere gratitude for the opportunity to provide assistance during this unimaginable difficulty.
