CELEBRATING THE MAMA PELICANS

ROOTED IN SACRIFICE

The pelican featured on the Louisiana flag—and in Ryan Gatti’s logo—represents something deeply meaningful: sacrifice, protection, and unwavering care for others. Known as the “Pelican in Her Piety,” the symbol reflects the legend of a mother pelican willing to give of herself to provide for her young.

Each year at the Annual Good Friday Crawfish Boil, this story is shared as a reminder of the values that define our community. The pelican is more than an image on a flag or a shirt—it’s a tribute to those who put others first and serve with compassion and strength.

This year, that spirit was honored in a special way as Ryan Gatti presented a Louisiana flag to Mr. Howard Davis, recognizing his sacrifice and his enduring love for our community. Moments like these reflect what the pelican stands for—and why its meaning continues to resonate year after year.
