Thank You!

On August 6, we celebrated National Paralegal Day by honoring the dedication, expertise, and hard work of our outstanding paralegals Penny, Evette, and Kristen.

Your tireless efforts behind the scenes keep our firm running smoothly and make a lasting difference for our clients and our team.

We are truly grateful for your commitment and excellence.

Thank you for all that you do, we couldn't do it without you!

BACK-TO-SCHOOL LEGAL CHECKLIST

As families prepare for a new school year, it's a great time to revisit some important legal considerations. Here are three tips to make the transition into the new school year smoother:

1. Custody & Co-Parenting Arrangements - Back-to-school often means new routines. If you share custody, it's important to review your parenting plan and clarify school pick-ups, extracurricular schedules, and communication with teachers. A well-structured plan can prevent conflicts during the busy school year.
2. Student Safety & School Zones - Every August, police increase patrols around school zones. Drivers should be mindful of reduced speed limits, pedestrian crossings, and school bus stop laws. Even minor violations can carry hefty fines and put children at risk.
3. Planning Ahead - The start of school is also a good reminder for families to review legal documents such as guardianship designations, medical authorizations, and emergency contact information. Being proactive now can save time and stress later.

By staying prepared and informed, families can step into the school year with peace of mind, knowing both their children's safety and their legal responsibilities are covered.

AUGUST IN REVIEW

At Ryan E. Gatti Law Firm, one of the most rewarding parts of what we do is helping families grow through adoption. Recently, we had the privilege of guiding a local family through the adoption process.

Our firm understands that every adoption is unique and we take great care to handle each case with compassion and attention to detail.

No matter the circumstances, our team is dedicated to making the process as smooth and stress-free as possible, providing both legal guidance and emotional support along the way.

We are honored to play a role in these life-changing moments and remain committed to helping families through every step of the adoption process with the support and guidance they deserve.

If you or someone you know is considering adoption, please contact us to learn more about how we can help make the process smooth and meaningful.

Call our office today to schedule a consultation and let us walk with you through this journey.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

CRIMINAL DEFENSE

Along with other areas of practice, including adoption, we also take on criminal defense cases at Ryan E. Gatti Law Firm.

The legal team at the law office of Ryan E. Gatti, Attorney at Law has a long history of representing the Louisiana community's needs, and Ryan himself served as a state senator for four years, proudly fighting for those who needed him most. His time in office gave him valuable insight into how the law works and helped him craft a unique method of representing his clients.

Our goal is not only to provide skilled legal representation but also to stand firmly beside our clients during some of the most challenging times of their lives.

If you or someone you know is facing criminal charges, it is important to have an experienced attorney on your side. Contact our team to schedule a consultation and learn how our team can help protect your rights and fight for your future.
