Welcome to the Firm, Little Ones!

We're excited to welcome three new babies into the firm family. Watching our team experience these life-changing moments is a wonderful reminder that family is at the heart of everything we do. Please join us in celebrating these newest additions and wishing each family health, happiness, and many unforgettable memories together.

Movies in the Park

Bringing our community together with some summer fun in the park!

This summer, Ryan E. Gatti Attorney at Law was honored to partner with Bossier Parks & Recreation as the presenting sponsor of the Movies in the Park series. From June through September, families gathered in parks across Bossier City to enjoy movies under the stars, free popcorn and drinks, local food trucks, lawn games, and time together. As the final movie night takes place this September, we're grateful for the opportunity to meet so many wonderful families and be part of an event that brought our community together.

We believe that investing in family-friendly events helps strengthen the connections that make Northwest Louisiana such a special place to call home. Safe, welcoming spaces where neighbors can gather, children can play, and families can make memories are something we're proud to support. Thank you to Bossier Parks & Recreation for another great season, and thank you to everyone who joined us throughout the summer. We look forward to seeing you again next year!
